In the event no successor can be found who is acceptable to both the directors and the membership, the position shall remain unfilled until the following regular election. Each person so elected to fill a vacancy shall be elected to serve until his or her successor is elected.

Section 11. Presumption of Assent

A director of the Corporation who is present at a meeting of the Board of Directors or a committee thereof at which action on any corporate matter is taken shall be presumed to have assented to the action taken unless the director's dissent shall be entered in the minutes of the meeting or unless the director files a written dissent to such action with the person acting as the Secretary of the meeting before the adjournment thereof or shall forward such dissent by registered mail to the Secretary of the Corporation immediately after the adjournment of the meeting. Such right to dissent shall not apply to a director who votes in favor of such action.

Each committee member shall serve a one (1) year term or until his or her successor is appointed by the President or until such committee member shall resign. Each committee shall be responsible to the Board. Any director or officer of the league may attend any meeting of any committee without voice, except as provided otherwise herein.

Section 4. Vacancies

A vacancy in any principal office, because of death, resignation, removal, disqualification, or otherwise, shall be filled by the Board of Directors for the unexpired portion of the term. In the event the vacancy was created by the removal of the officer in question by membership vote, the league membership shall be able to veto the selected replacement by majority vote, provided that the membership has a proposed replacement who is acceptable to the board of directors. Since the position of each officer is vital to the day-to-day operations of the league, in the event no successor can be found who is acceptable to both the directors and the membership, the directors shall fill the vacancy without reference to membership preferences.

rights than the Statute permitted or required the Corporation to provide prior to such amendment.

Section 2. Mandatory Indemnification.

(a) The Corporation shall indemnify a Director or Officer, to the extent he or she has been successful on the merits or otherwise in the defense of a Proceeding, for all reasonable expenses incurred in connection with the defense of the Proceeding if the Director or Officer was a party thereto because he or she is or was at the time of the events upon which the Proceeding was based a Director or Officer of the Corporation.

(b) In all cases not included in Section 2(a) of this Article VII, the Corporation shall indemnify a Director or Officer against Expenses and Liabilities incurred by the Director or Officer in a Proceeding to which the Director or Officer was a party because he or she is or was at the time of the event upon which the Proceeding was based a Director or Officer of the Corporation, unless liability was incurred because the Director or Officer engaged in conduct constituting a Breach of Duty.

Section 3. Procedural Requirements.

(a) A Director or Officer who seeks indemnification under Section 2 of this Article VII shall make a written request therefor to the Treasurer of the Corporation or, if the party seeking indemnification is the Treasurer, to the President of the Corporation.

(b) Within ninety (90) days of the Corporation's receipt of such request, as provided in Section 3(a) of this Article VII, a Disinterested Quorum or, if a Disinterested Quorum cannot be obtained, a Board-Appointed Committee shall meet to determine, by a majority vote thereof, whether the Director or Officer requesting indemnification is entitled to such indemnification pursuant to the requirements of Section 2 of this Article VII. Upon approval of such request, indemnification by the Corporation of the requested amount of Liabilities shall be paid to the Director or Officer immediately (net of any Expenses previously advanced pursuant to Section 5 of this Article VII).

(c) In the event that, pursuant to Section 3(b) of this Article VII, the Disinterested Quorum or the Board-Appointed Committee, as the case may be, denies the Director's or Officer's request for indemnification, or in the event that neither a Disinterested Quorum nor a Board-Appointed Committee can be obtained, the Board of Directors shall immediately authorize by resolution that an Authority, appointed as provided in Section 4 of this Article VII, determine whether the Director's or Officer's conduct constituted a Breach of Duty and, therefore, whether indemnification should be denied hereunder.

(d) (i) If the Board of Directors does not authorize an Authority to determine the Director's or Officer's right to indemnification hereunder within such 60-day period and/or (ii) if indemnification of the requested amount of Liabilities is paid by the Corporation, then it shall be conclusively presumed for all purposes that a Disinterested Quorum has affirmatively determined that the Director or Officer did not engage in conduct constituting a Breach of Duty and, in the case of subsection (i) above (but not subsection (ii)), indemnification by the Corporation of the requested amount of Liabilities shall be paid to the Director or Officer immediately.

Section 4. Determination of Indemnification.

(a) If the Board of Directors authorizes an Authority to determine a Director's or Officer's right to indemnification pursuant to Section 3 of this Article VII, then the Director or Officer requesting indemnification shall have the absolute discretionary authority to select one of the following as such Authority:

(i) An independent legal counsel selected by majority vote of a Disinterested Quorum, or, if a Disinterested Quorum cannot be obtained, by majority vote of a Board-Appointed Committee, or, if a Disinterested Quorum or a Board-Appointed Committee cannot be obtained, by a majority vote of the full Board of Directors, including Directors who are parties to the same or related Proceedings; or

(ii) A panel of three (3) arbitrators selected from panels of arbitrators of the local American Arbitration Association, provided that: (A) one arbitrator shall be selected by such Director or Officer, the second arbitration shall be selected by a majority vote of those Directors entitled under subsection (i) of this Section 4 to select independent legal counsel, and the third arbitrator shall be selected by the two previously-selected arbitrators; and (B) in all other respects, such panel shall be governed by the American Arbitration Association's then existing Commercial Arbitration Rules; or

(iii) The affirmative vote or unanimous written consent of the members of the Corporation if there are members having voting rights at the time. However, membership rights owned by or voted under the control of persons who at the time of the vote or consent are parties to the same or related Proceedings, whether as plaintiffs or defendants or in any other capacity, may not be voted in making the determination; or

(iv) A court of competent jurisdiction upon application by the Director or Officer for an initial determination of entitlement to indemnification or for review by the court of an adverse determination under Sections 3 and 4 of this Article VII. Indemnification shall be ordered if the court determines that the Director or Officer is entitled to indemnification under Section 2 or 3 or that the Director or Officer is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnification in view of all of the relevant circumstances.

(b) If any such determination by the selected Authority, there shall exist a rebuttable presumption that the Director's or Officer's conduct did not constitute a Breach of Duty and that indemnification against the requested amount of Liabilities is required. The burden of rebutting such a presumption by clear and convincing evidence shall be on the Corporation or such other party asserting that such indemnification should not be allowed. Furthermore, the termination of a Proceeding by judgment, order, settlement or conviction, or upon a plea of no contest or an equivalent plea, does not, by itself, create a presumption that indemnification of the Director or Officer is not required under Section 2 or 3 of this Article VII.

(c) The Authority shall make its determination within sixty (60) days of being selected and shall submit a written opinion of its conclusion simultaneously to both the Corporation and the Director or Officer.

(d) If the Authority determines that indemnification is required hereunder, the Corporation shall pay the entire requested amount of Liabilities (net of any Expenses previously advanced pursuant to Section 5), including interest owed at a reasonable rate, as determined by the Authority, within ten (10) days of receipt of the Authority's opinion; provided that, if it is determined by the Authority that a Director or Officer is entitled to indemnification against Liabilities incurred in connection with some claims, issues or matters, but not as to other claims, issues or matters, involved in the subject Proceeding, the Corporation shall be required to pay (as set forth above) only the amount of such requested Liabilities as the Authority shall deem appropriate in light of the circumstances of such Proceeding.

(e) The determination by the Authority that indemnification is required hereunder shall be binding upon the Corporation regardless of any prior determination that the Director or Officer engaged in a Breach of Duty.

(f) All Expenses incurred in the determination process under this Section 4 by either the Corporation or the Director or Officer, including, without limitation, all Expenses of the selected Authority, shall be paid by the Corporation.

Section 5. Allowance of Expenses as Incurred.

(a) The Corporation shall pay or reimburse, from time to time, or at any time within ten (10) days after the receipt of the Director's or Officer's written request therefor, the reasonable Expenses incurred by a Director or Officer who is a party to a Proceeding, as those Expenses are incurred, provided that the Director or Officer satisfies the following conditions:

(i) The Director or Officer furnishes to the Corporation an executed written affirmation of his or her good-faith belief that he or she has not engaged in conduct which constitutes a Breach of duty; and

(ii) The Director or Officer furnishes to the Corporation an unsecured written agreement, executed by the Director or Officer personally or on his or her behalf, to repay any advances made under this Section 5 to the extent it is ultimately determined that the Director or Officer is not entitled to be indemnified by the Corporation for such Expenses pursuant to Sections 2, 3 and 4 of this Article VII.

(b) If the Director or Officer must repay any previously advanced Expenses pursuant to this Section 5, such Director or Officer shall not be required to pay interest on such amounts.

Section 6. Indemnification and Allowances of Expenses of Certain Others.

(a) The Corporation shall indemnify an individual who is or was a director or officer of any Controlled Subsidiary (who is not or was not otherwise serving as a Director or Officer) against all Liabilities, and shall advance the reasonable Expenses incurred by such director or officer in a Proceeding, but only to the extent such Proceeding is based on acts or omissions alleged to have occurred after the Controlled Subsidiary has become a subsidiary of the Corporation and, otherwise, to the same extent hereunder as if such director or officer incurred such Liabilities because he or she was a Director or Officer, or if such director or officer is a party thereto because he or she is or was a director or officer of the Controlled Subsidiary.

(b) The Board of Directors may, in its sole and absolute discretion, as it deems appropriate, and pursuant to a majority vote thereof, indemnify an individual who is or was a director or officer of an Affiliate (who is not otherwise serving as a Director or Officer or a director or officer of a Controlled Subsidiary) against all Liabilities, and shall advance the reasonable Expenses incurred by such director or officer in a Proceeding to the same extent hereunder as if such director or officer incurred such Liabilities because he or she was a Director or Officer, or if such director or officer is a Party thereto because he or she is or was a director or officer of the Affiliate.

(c) The Board of Directors may, in its sole and absolute discretion, as it deems appropriate, and pursuant to a majority vote thereof, indemnify against the Liabilities incurred by, and/or provide for the advance or allowance of reasonable Expenses of, an employee or authorized agent of the Corporation acting within the scope of his or her duties as such and who is not otherwise a Director or Officer.

Section 7. Insurance

The Corporation may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of a Director or Officer or any individual who is or was an employee or authorized agent of the Corporation, or to reimburse itself, against any Liability asserted or incurred, and expenses incurred, by such Director or Officer or individual in connection with a Proceeding brought against such Director or Officer or individual in his or her capacity as such or arising from his or her status as such, regardless of whether the Corporation is required or permitted to indemnify against any such Liability or to reimburse for any such Expenses incurred under this Article VII.

Section 8. Severability

If any provision of this Article VII shall be deemed invalid or inoperative, or if a court of competent jurisdiction determines that any of the provisions of this Article VII contravene public policy, this Article VII shall be construed so that the remaining provisions shall not be affected, but shall remain in full force and effect, and any such provisions which are invalid or inoperative or which contravene public policy shall be deemed, without further action or deed by or on behalf of the Corporation, to be modified, amended and/or limited, but only to the extent necessary to render the same valid and enforceable; it being understood that it is the Corporation's intention to provide the Directors and Officers with the broadest possible protection against personal liability allowable under the Statute.

Section 10. Nonexclusivity of Article VII

The rights of a Director or Officer (or any other person) granted under this Article VII shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to indemnification against Liabilities or allowance of Expenses which the Director or Officer (or such other person) may be entitled to under any written agreement, Board resolution, or otherwise, including, without limitation, under the Statute. Nothing contained in this Article VII shall be deemed to limit the Corporation's obligations to indemnify against Liabilities or allow Expenses to a Director or Officer under the Statute.

Section 11. Amendment; Effective Date

(a) This Article VII may only be altered, amended or repealed by the affirmative vote of a majority of the Directors of the Corporation represented at a meeting at which a quorum is present and entitled to vote.

(b) This Article VII shall be deemed to be a contract between the Corporation and each previous, current or future Director and Officer. The provisions of this Article VII shall apply to all Proceedings commenced after the date hereof, whether arising from any action taken or any failure to act before or after such date, and any repeal or other limitation of this Article VII or any repeal or limitation of the Statute or any other applicable law shall not limit any rights of indemnification against Liabilities or allowance of Expenses then existing or arising out of events, acts or omissions occurring prior to such repeal or limitation, including, without limitation, the right to indemnification against Liabilities or allowance of Expenses for Proceedings commenced after such repeal or limitation to enforce this Article VII with regard to acts, omissions or events arising prior to such repeal or limitation.

The Board of Directors may from time to time, by vote of a majority of its members, adopt, amend or repeal any or all of the Bylaws of this Corporation.

Section 2. Implied Amendments

Any action taken or authorized by the Board of Directors which would be inconsistent with the Bylaws then in effect, but which is taken or authorized by affirmative vote of not less than the number of members or the number of directors required to amend the Bylaws so that the Bylaws would be consistent with such action, shall be given the same effect as though the Bylaws had been temporarily amended or suspended as far, but only as far, as is necessary to permit the specific action so taken or authorized.

Appendix A : Conflict of Interest Policy

Article I: Purpose

The purpose of the conflict of interest policy is to protect this tax-exempt organization's (Organization) interest when it is contemplating entering into a transaction or arrangement that might benefit the private interest of an officer or director of the Organization or might result in a possible excess benefit transaction. This policy is intended to supplement but not replace any applicable state and federal laws governing conflict of interest applicable to nonprofit and charitable organizations.

Article II: Definitions

1. Interested Person

Any director, principal officer, or member of a committee with governing board delegated powers, who has a direct or indirect financial interest, as defined below, is an interested person.

2. Financial Interest

A person has a financial interest if the person has, directly or indirectly, through business, investment, or family:

An ownership or investment interest in any entity with which the Organization has a transaction or arrangement,

A compensation arrangement with the Organization or with any entity or individual with which the Organization has a transaction or arrangement, or

A potential ownership or investment interest in, or compensation arrangement with, any entity or individual with which the Organization is negotiating a transaction or arrangement.

Compensation includes direct and indirect remuneration as well as gifts or favors that are not insubstantial.

A financial interest is not necessarily a conflict of interest. Under Article III, Section 2, a person who has a financial interest may have a conflict of interest only if the appropriate governing board or committee decides that a conflict of interest exists.

Article III: Procedures

1. Duty to Disclose

In connection with any actual or possible conflict of interest, an interested person must disclose the existence of the financial interest and be given the opportunity to disclose all material facts to the directors and members of committees with governing board delegated powers considering the proposed transaction or arrangement.

2. Determining Whether a Conflict of Interest Exists

After disclosure of the financial interest and all material facts, and after any discussion with the interested person, he/she shall leave the governing board or committee meeting while the determination of a conflict of interest is discussed and voted upon. The remaining board or committee members shall decide if a conflict of interest exists by majority vote.

3. Procedures for Addressing the Conflict of Interest

An interested person may make a presentation at the governing board or committee meeting, but after the presentation, he/she shall leave the meeting during the discussion of, and the vote on, the transaction or arrangement involving the possible conflict of interest.

The chairperson of the governing board or committee shall, if appropriate, appoint a disinterested person or committee to investigate alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement.

After exercising due diligence, the governing board or committee shall determine whether the Organization can obtain with reasonable efforts a more advantageous transaction or arrangement from a person or entity that would not give rise to a conflict of interest.

If a more advantageous transaction or arrangement is not reasonably possible under circumstances not producing a conflict of interest, the governing board or committee shall determine by a majority vote of the disinterested directors whether the transaction or arrangement is in the Organization's best interest, for its own benefit, and whether it is fair and reasonable. In conformity with the above determination it shall make its decision as to whether to enter into the transaction or arrangement.

4. Violations of the Conflicts of Interest Policy

If the governing board or committee has reasonable cause to believe a member has failed to disclose actual or possible conflicts of interest, it shall inform the member of the basis for such belief and afford the member an opportunity to explain the alleged failure to disclose.

If, after hearing the member's response and after making further investigation as warranted by the circumstances, the governing board or committee determines the member has failed to disclose an actual or possible conflict of interest, it shall take appropriate disciplinary and corrective action.

Article IV: Records of Proceedings

The minutes of the governing board and all committees with board delegated powers shall contain:

The names of the persons who disclosed or otherwise were found to have a financial interest in connection with an actual or possible conflict of interest, the nature of the financial interest, any action taken to determine whether a conflict of interest was present, and the governing board's or committee's decision as to whether a conflict of interest in fact existed.

The names of the persons who were present for discussions and votes relating to the transaction or arrangement, the content of the discussion, including any alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement, and a record of any votes taken in connection with the proceedings.

Article V: Compensation

A voting member of the governing board who receives compensation, directly or indirectly, from the Organization for services is precluded from voting on matters pertaining to that member's compensation.

A voting member of any committee whose jurisdiction includes compensation matters and who receives compensation, directly or indirectly, from the Organization for services is precluded from voting on matters pertaining to that member's compensation.

No voting member of the governing board or any committee whose jurisdiction includes compensation matters and who receives compensation, directly or indirectly, from the Organization, either individually or collectively, is prohibited from providing information to any committee regarding compensation.

Article VI: Annual Statements

Each director, principal officer and member of a committee with governing board delegated powers shall annually sign a statement which affirms such person:

Has received a copy of the conflicts of interest policy,

Has read and understands the policy,

Has agreed to comply with the policy,

and

Understands the Organization is charitable and in order to maintain its federal tax exemption it must engage primarily in activities which accomplish one or more of its tax-exempt purposes.

Article VII: Periodic Reviews

To ensure the Organization operates in a manner consistent with charitable purposes and does not engage in activities that could jeopardize its tax-exempt status, periodic reviews shall be conducted. The periodic reviews shall, at a minimum, include the following subjects:

Whether compensation arrangements and benefits are reasonable, based on competent survey information, and the result of arm's length bargaining.

Whether partnerships, joint ventures, and arrangements with management organizations conform to the Organization's written policies, are properly recorded, reflect reasonable investment or payments for goods and services, further charitable purposes and do not result in inurement, impermissible private benefit or in an excess benefit transaction.

Article VIII: Use of Outside Experts

When conducting the periodic reviews as provided for in Article VII, the Organization may, but need not, use outside advisors. If outside experts are used, their use shall not relieve the governing board of its responsibility for ensuring periodic reviews are conducted.
